Once they were inside the residence, [REDACTED] stated the arguing continued into the bedroom. When I asked [REDACTED] what the argument was about, she stated that she could not remember. At that time, Voynov wrapped both of his hands around [REDACTED]'s neck and began to squeeze, making it difficult for her to breathe. According to [REDACTED], Voynov choked her in the same fashion two more times while repeatedly pushing her to the floor. According to [REDACTED], Voynov pushed her to the floor approximately six to seven times with both hands telling her that he wanted a divorce and to, "Get out". Additionally, [REDACTED] stated Voynov told her there would be "no more money" and she would be, "gone". While [REDACTED] was on the floor, she stated Voynov kicked her approximately five to six times in various places all over her body. When [REDACTED] got to her feet, Voynov pushed her one last time directly into the bottom corner of the flat screen television mounted to the northern most bedroom wall. During the attack [REDACTED] stated she was screaming for Voynov to stop. When blood began pouring from [REDACTED]'s face, [REDACTED] stated Voynov "got scared" and the attack stopped. [REDACTED] continued pleading for Voynov to stop and asked him to call for emergency services because she did not have any friends and could not speak as much English as him in order to call for help.

SUSPECT STATEMENT: On 10/20/14 at approximately 0039 hours, I (Ofc. Wiist #1293) contacted suspect, Viatcheslav Voynov in the lobby of Little Company of Mary Hospital (4101 Torrance Blvd. Torrance, CA 90503).

When I asked Voynov how [REDACTED] obtained her injury, Voynov stated she hit the edge of the television as she was getting out of bed. Voynov denied striking and pushing [REDACTED] into the television. No further questions were asked.
